- a. No Student Union officer or student group may be deprived of their rights or property without due process of law, nor be denied the equal protection of the law.
- b. No Student Union officer or student group may be prosecuted under the law, statute, rule, or regulation that was enacted after the fact of the action; nor shall be punished more severely under the law, statute, rule, or regulation that increases the punishment established at the time of the action.
- c. No Student Union officer or student group may be prosecuted for an act committed more than one (1) calendar year before the initiation of prosecution.
- d. No Student Union officer or student group may be prosecuted more than once for the same act under the same law, statute, rule, or regulation.

SECTION 3. PROCEDURAL RIGHTS

- a. A constituent accused and brought to trial must be guaranteed the following rights:
 1. To receive written notice of the charges against them.
 2. The opportunity to prepare a reasonable defense in advance of the hearing.
 3. To confront and question the accuser, if a constituent, or to study and challenge a signed statement if the accuser is not a constituent.
 4. To question witnesses and submit material evidence.
 5. To refuse to testify against themselves. Any constituent offering testimony may refuse to answer questions that would tend to incriminate themselves. No evidence may be presented against a student that was seized and held without their permission or without warrants from designated authorities.
 6. To receive an impartial and open hearing, and if convicted, to be subjected to no cruel or unusual punishment.
 7. To have hearings and trials completed with all deliberate speed.

SECTION 4. ADDITIONAL RIGHTS

The enumeration of these rights and immunities shall not preclude other rights and immunities.

ARTICLE XIV. EQUITY

All constituents shall be given equitable treatment under the rules, regulations, law, and Constitution of Student Union. All official documents of Student Union must reflect this belief. This is not inclusive of the actions of those student groups that, although funded by Student Union, do not reflect the views of Student Union as a whole.

ARTICLE XV. ENACTMENT

This Constitution will be effective as of April 5th, 2023.
